dedicates this volume of the

Colonial to

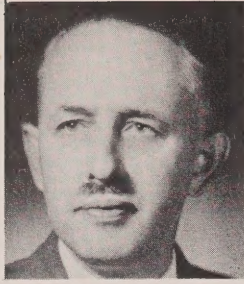

MICHAEL JOSEPH BRESNAHAN

We'll remember Mike as the fellow who was always willing to go out of his way to help us with our class activities. Mike's sense of humor and genuine interest in our school and class functions have added to the enjoyment of our high school years.

Class Song

At Shrewsbury we've made the friendship dear,
That we shall cherish in our future years.
Within these walls we have built our dreams
Of wealth, wisdom, fame and distant scenes.
The knowledge, honor, loyalty
That we have attained,
The sportsmanship, the sense of right
Shall lead us through our future plights.

And now dear Alma Mater, as we leave,
Your virtues in our futures we shall weave.
We pledge to thee that we shall strive to seek
The goal that you have vainly strived to teach.
Your ideals, mottos, memories—
These too we shall uphold.
We'll find success, we'll do our best,
The class of nineteen fifty.

SOLANGE IRMA ALBERT

"Lange"

"Her smile speaks volumes that she doesn't say"

One of our newest seniors, Solange, hails from Madawaska, Maine. She brought us not only a definite French flavor in her speech, but a quiet friendly manner and an ever present smile. Solange has shown herself to be a willing and hard worker in many school activities — a quality which should prove valuable in the field of nursing. Good luck, Solange — we all enjoyed being your friends.

International Friendship League 4; Victory Dance 4; Senior Choir 4.

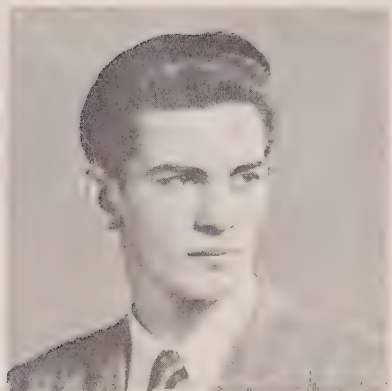

GLORIA RUTH AMARAL

"Glo"

"Quiet, friendly, likeable"

Glo has pretty dark hair and bright eyes. She's short and dainty and has a likeable personality. Among her accomplishments are dancing and playing the piano. Anytime you're feeling blue, just stop and talk to Glo. She has an atomic formula to use on you — composed of humor, friendship, and charm. Your quiet, friendly manner will insure you of success in the future, Glo.

Glee Club 2, 3; Yearbook 4; Town Crier 3; Night of Memories 2; Senior Choir 4.

ANTHONY M. ANNUNZIATA

"Chicky"

"Easy does it"

Chicky is one member of our class who has that distinguished gray in his hair. This distinctiveness in appearance is well matched with a very different personality. He's always full of fun and is cracking dry jokes a good deal of the time. Chicky is envied by all of us for never taking home a book. His life is truly full of fun and free from care. Good luck in your future, Chicky.

ROBERT KENNETH ARMSTRONG

"Bob"

"A little mischief now and then is relished by the best of men"

Bob's sly smile and argumentative manner will long be remembered by his classmates. Whenever there is anything doing, Bob is usually involved. He has been seriously involved with Dan Cupid and has concentrated his amorous ways to just one — a blonde Sophomore. He is a man with many hopes and plans for the future; cars, mechanic, and farming are just a few. We wish you good luck in all your future endeavors, Bob.

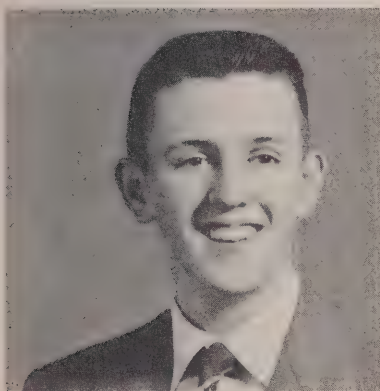

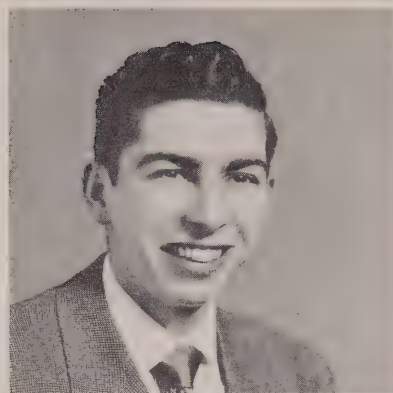

A.A. 2, 3, 4; Baseball 2, 3, 4; Yearbook 4; Senior Choir 4.

ROBERT BORGATTI"Spag""It's no trouble to smile"*

Spag is one of the best liked fellows in the senior class. He can be spotted easily because of his neat appearance and well selected clothes. He is one of the few in the class to own a car of his own. When he leaves Shrewsbury High, he plans to become a veterinarian. Because of his deep interest in animals, we know that we'll soon be calling him "Doc."

ROBERT MORSE BOWKER*"Scarelli""Girls — I hear you calling"*

As co-captain of our famous 1950 team Scarelli put the finishing touches on many a basketball game — he hooped them from half court. He used to be our "shy guy", but as a senior his true Bowker self could not hide. When we are all old and gray, we will still remember the sensation Scarelli caused with his pastel green silk shirt and beautiful lavender satin tie. With all this and a name like Scarelli, how can he miss?

JANE ELEANOR BOYCE"Pinky""Softly I speak, sweetly I smile"*

Pinky gives the impression of being a quiet miss, but under the veneer she's full of mischief and fun. All of her friends can tell you that she has a grand sense of humor. Her blonde hair and pleasing smile, the envy of many, make her "lovely to look at and pleasing to know." The class of '50 wishes you the best of luck in the secretarial field, Janie. We know you'll succeed.

MICHAEL BRESNAHAN*"Mike""Life's a jest as all things show;
I thought so once, and now I know"*

Mike is one of the standbys of the Senior Class — always ready with a helping hand, fond of dancing, a favorite with the girls, and an all-round good sport. We all appreciate the help he has given us in our class projects. His good looks and wit could not keep him in the background. He has not told us what he is going to do after graduation, but we may rest assured that he will be a credit to good old Beal.

RICHARD BRIGGS

"Dick"

"Tall, dark, and handsome"

Dick is not only the best looking boy in the class, but also one of the most popular. A likeable lad who manages to have fun in everything he does, his favorite pastimes are magazines and a certain brunette named Nancy. Dick is an all-round good sport — from playing football to singing in the Glee Club and helping in class activities. Dick's future is undecided, but whatever he does and wherever he goes, our best wishes remain with him.

RICHARD P. BROWN

"Brownie"

"What care I when I can rest, kill time, and take life at its best"

Dick is the wit of our class. He hasn't much to say, but what he says is worth hearing. Dick is one of the crew's potent powerhouses and has been a main factor in the crew's success. We know that in the future Dick will make many new friends and will be a success in anything he undertakes.

BARBARA ANN CALLEN

"Bobby"

"It's the tranquil people who accomplish much"

Bobby came to us in her junior year from North Terrace High School, Schenectady, New York. Her quiet and personable ways have won her many friends in the Senior Class. Her neatness and nice disposition contribute greatly to a pleasing personality. Among Barbara's main interests are swimming, ice skating, and roller-skating. Whatever her plans for the future are, we are sure she will achieve her purpose.

Senior Choir.

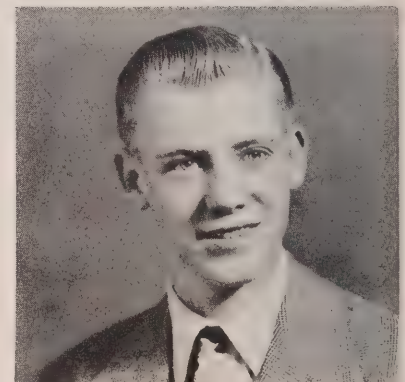

RONALD J. CARLSON

"Whitey"

"A likeable lad with likeable ways"

Whitey's numerous pranks throughout our high school days have amused his friends and often annoyed his teachers. But his friendly smile and congenial disposition make up for this. After graduating Whitey plans to enlist in the Air Force, but inside sources tell us that he would like to own a farm in New Hampshire. Which ever road you choose, Whitey, may it lead to success.

International Friendship League 2, 3, 4; Yearbook 4; Senior Choir 4.

SHIRLEY JEANNE CARPENTER

"Jeannie"

*"There's a sparkle in her eyes
And mischief in her laughter"*

Jeanne is the picture of an average American girl. Her charming smile and laughing personality have made her one of the most popular girls at Shrewsbury High. Dark hair contrasting with hazel eyes tend to make her one of the prettier girls of the class. Jeanne's stylish clothes have been the envy of her classmates. We hear that Jeanne has quite a hankering for certain Worcester football players. With her mixture of good looks and intelligence, Jeannie will surely succeed in whatever she undertakes.

GLORIA M. CARROLL

"Frenchy"

"Fun is where she is"

Gloria is the third — but not the last — of the Carroll "dynasty" to leave the halls of our dear old Beal High. Far from being quiet, Gloria's frequent outbursts have announced her presence in many a classroom during the past four years. After graduating we hear that Gloria plans to travel. Her jovial ways will help her in making friends with all whom she may encounter.

JEAN MARY CARTIER

"Jean"

"Merry and gay, let care flee away"

Peppy, fun-loving, cute — these are the adjectives for Jean. Co-captain of the hockey team and a star on both the basketball and softball teams, she is one of our best athletes. The victories of the football and basketball teams this past year can be greatly accredited to this active cheerleader. There is never a dull moment when Jean is present, but she can really be serious at times. With her vivacious personality, we know she will never lack popularity, fun, or friends.

RUTH MARJORIE CATHLINE

"Ru-tee"

"Quiet but nice"

Ruthie is one of the quietest members of our class, but she has a talent for making lots of friends. Her ability to sew and draw is envied by many. Ruth is undecided about her future, but whatever she undertakes we know she will accomplish.

Sophomore Social 2; Sophomore Hop 2; International Friendship League 1, 2, 3, 4; Gypsy Troubadour 3; Softball 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3; Yearbook 4; Town Crier 3; Night of Memories 2; Senior Choir, Junior Red Cross Council 4.

NANCY MAY CHALKER

"Nan"

"I chatter, chatter as I go"

Whenever you hear a groan coming from Room 6, it's usually Nancy trying to do her Office Methods. Although she was always happy, it seems as though her life has been brightened this past year. Could the reason be a certain tall, dark, young man, Nan? Nancy is undecided about her future, but we all wish her luck, knowing she'll succeed.

Freshman Social; International Friendship League 2, 3, 4; Gypsy Troubadour 3; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Yearbook; Town Crier; Night of Memories 3; Senior Choir 4.

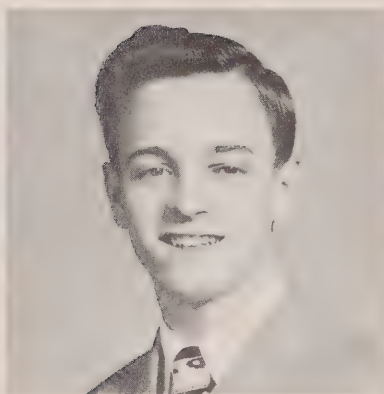

PHYLLIS MAY CHARBONNEAU

"Phyl"

"Dancing feet; flashing smile"

Phyllis is the little blonde with the radiant smile. She is a good friend, always willing to help as well as share in the fun. Phyllis has in her the ability to dance professionally, but it looks as though a young man in Mendon has a monopoly on her future. Your personable ways insure you of success in the future, Phyl.

International Friendship League 3; Gypsy Troubadour 3; Glee Club 3; Yearbook 4; Town Crier 3; Senior Choir 4.

RAYMOND CHARETTE

"Ray"

"You were little at the start but mighty at the end"

Ray's the little man of our class, the small guy with the big laugh, always ready with a quick comeback. Ray can always be depended upon to give the class a laugh when one is needed, and when one is not. Although he did not partake in any athletics in school, Ray's interest in all types of sports — high school, college, and professional — is unsurpassed. Whether his destination turns out to be Holy Cross or Spag's, Ray will always come through with flying colors.

ARDETH MAUREEN CLIFFORD

"Ardi"

"Independence is a virtue"

Ardeth has always been ready and willing to help the class when it needed her. Her laughter and smile portray her happy spirit. Ardeth's originality is known to everyone. We hear that Ardeth is going to receive an engagement ring for graduation. Whatever you attempt in the future, Ardeth, you have our best wishes for success.

DANIEL J. CORCORAN"Danny""He comes without a trumpet's blare, but we know Danny's there"*

A friendly smile and a good word to everyone are Danny's trademarks. Danny has quite an artistic ability, too. His English notebooks are as neat as Danny himself. And what would the crew have done without Danny these past two years? His mighty oar has pulled the crew to many a victory. For the future Danny plans naval services, in which we know he'll succeed.

MARJORIE ANN D'AMATO*"Margie""It's nice to be natural when you're naturally nice"*

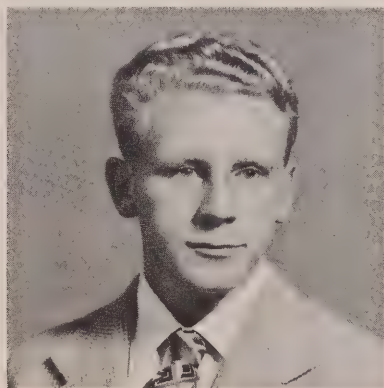

Margie, our class treasurer, is well liked by everyone. She's the only girl in the Senior "Trig" class — lucky Marge! Her dark, almost auburn, curly hair has fluctuated between long and short lengths throughout our high-school years, but Margie's eyes and slow smile have never changed — and we hope they never will! An "A" student, we think Margie would like to be an "at home girl." With your wonderful assets, Margie, success will surely be yours.

LOUIS DEAN"Lou""I know a trick worth two of that"*

Whether it is finding his way into the enemy's backfield on the football field, or finding his way into a photographer's office, Lou never fails us. His easy going manner and dry humor should aid him in whatever he attempts.

Gypsy Troubadour 3; Football 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3; Night of Memories 2; Senior Choir 4.

FRANCES ANN DEMING*"Frannie""Hail Blithe Spirit"*

A torchy voice — an infectious laugh — that's our Fran! Versatility and Fran might well be synonymous as is proved by her apt leadership as basketball co-captain; her singing which has been lent to the making of many a musical; her outstanding ability in dramatics; and her efficiency plus in carrying out the tasks of various offices. To a most popular girl with a radiant personality to her credit go our best wishes of success at college.

JAY WINTHROP DUNN

"Paisan"

"A man's man is often a woman's too!"

Smooth looks, a winning smile and a pleasing manner—Jay's here. He has been a valuable member of the basketball team and wields a wicked golf club. His good humor and willingness to work have contributed to the success of many class functions. Jay's friendly personality and smooth manners, as well as his expert ability on the dance floor, have caused many feminine hearts to flutter. All the success in the world goes to a wonderful friend.

MARION FRANCES FADGEN

"Fadge"

"Some think the world is made for fun and frolic, and so do I"

Fadge is our star athlete. Starring in hockey, basketball, and softball, she has kept us on the winning sides. She is popular with all, especially with those of the opposite sex—just ask "Mitch"! She is always willing to lend a helping hand whenever one is needed. Although her future is undecided, with her winning ways we know she'll be a great success.

DOUGLAS H. FOHLIN

"Doug"

"It's the men who take ventures who make the world"

He appears fairly quiet in class, yet to those of us who know him he is quite the opposite. Many of us wish that we had his ability to win his way through arguments. Under his guidance as coxswain, the crew has come through with some brilliant victories. He has his eye on North Park College and the course of Business Administration. We know you'll succeed, "Doug," so good luck. The world is waiting for you. Take it!

LOREN G. FORRISTER

"Lory"

"The little man with so many jobs"

Mischief is in this lad's eyes. "If you like people, let them know it,"—that's "Lory's" motto. When his booming laughter echoes down our long, dark corridors we can be sure "Lory" is up to one of his usual pranks. His future is undecided as yet, but we know that success will be his in anything he may choose to do.

EDWARD FRANCIS GARREPY"Eddie""He's never haughty, never proud, but popular in every crowd"*

Eddie is one of the outstanding all-around fellows in the senior class. Eddie's able leadership, together with his friendly and willing manner, has earned him the position of President of the Senior Class. His presence on the baseball team has insured many a victory, while his artistic ability is the envy of many. However, when there are girls around, Eddie's mind is not entirely upon his studies. Without a doubt, Eddie has all of the necessary qualifications to make his chosen career of art a success.

ROBERT GIARD*"Bob""There's mischief in that smile"*

Bob has been gifted with a friendly personality which he uses to its fullest extent. Bob has many interests that not all of us have heard of. His sailboat on Lake Quinsigamond was envied by many. With your sunny disposition, Bob, success is inevitable.

CAROLE MAY GIBSON"That Gibson Girl""Success comes to those who strive for it"*

"That Gibson Girl" came to us from Commerce at the beginning of our Junior year. She is always ready with an answer in class and her name is always on the Honor Roll. Carole surprised us with her nice singing voice which we didn't discover until our Senior year. She was elected secretary of the Senior Choir. We understand that Carole plans to enter Clark after graduation. We know she will be successful there.

JANET MARILYN GOODELL*"Jan""Quietness shall be my strength"*

Take a soft voice and a gentle manner; add flaming red hair; now mix with a congenial disposition and the result is Jan Goodell. Her smile is another of her recommendations. Don't ever lose it, Jan. After graduation she plans to do office work, and she has the best wishes of her classmates for success.

JANE GREENWOOD

"Janie"

"Vim, vigor, vitality; pep, poise, personality"

A friendly smile for both classmates and underclassmen alike is Janie's trademark. Take a diminutive frame, mix with a friendly personality, a natural manner, athletic ability and a sense of responsibility, glaze well with poise and tact, top it all with a cute smile and you have the reason for Janie's popularity in and out of school. She is a member any class would be glad to boast of. May success be hers at Deaconess Hospital!

DORIS ELSIE HARVEY

"Elsie"

"Just as cheerful as can be"

Wherever a joke is being told, Elsie is usually there! This girl, Elsie, is really full of fun. She is one of the very first among us to pursue interests along the career line. Elsie has been an efficient waitress for some time. We wish her the very best of luck in whatever she does and we know she will brighten any endeavor with her contagious wit.

JOY MADELINE HENNE

"Sunny"

"I find life not grey, but rosy"

Joy, small and blonde, is well liked by all who know her. Her cheery disposition and ever-present smile have helped her to capture the admiration of all her friends. Joy's favorite pastime is roller skating, and, from what we hear, she's quite an accomplished skater. May you glide through life as easily as you have on the floor at the skating rink, Joy.

RUSSELL F. HENRY

"Russ"

"Two wheels, and a motor . . ."

Russ is the proud owner of a one hundred and fifty pound motorcycle. This is one of the reasons that he hardly misses a day of school. We'll always remember Russ as the guy who gave Mr. Jacobs an argument for everything. Russ is also a great business man—he'll give you a Gazette for a Town Crier anytime. Good luck, Russ, in whatever you undertake.

A. A. 1, 2, 3; French Club 2.

JO-ANNE HICKEY

"Jo"

"Her friends, there are many—her foes, are there any?"

Jo-Anne's pleasant disposition and happy-go-lucky ways have brightened many a dull moment throughout our high school years. Her talent with the piano and her beautiful wardrobe are envied by many. Jo-Anne is our class flirt. She obtained this superlative, as everyone knows, by her ever-ready friendliness toward all the boys. Jo-Anne is the official trouble hearer. She always has a sympathetic word or some advice for everyone. If her flighty ways follow her, the college she attends will never remember a dull moment.

JOYCE PATRICIA HURD

"Joy"

"Her eyes are sapphires set in snow—resembling heaven in every wink"

Joyce came to Beal High in her junior year and soon established herself as the possessor of an ever-loving giggle. The giggle is typical of Joyce's humorous personality and numerous jokes. Her presence in our classrooms has been marked by instantaneous outbursts. Her personality, beautiful eyes, and friendliness will pave the way to success. We hope that success will be evident in the travels which Joyce plans after she receives her diploma.

JANET SYLVIA IRELAND

"Jan"

"And when you dance I wish you were a wave of the sea, that you might ever do nothing but that"

Jan, the class dancing artist, is the example of the perfect lady—graceful, soft-spoken, and neat. She just radiates friendliness. Many a new student has been welcomed into the fold by Jan's pleasing smile and beautiful brown eyes. Jan always comes up with an A in her studies, too. She plans to attend the University of Massachusetts to major in science, and during the summers train for secretarial work. It's a tall order, but we bet that Jan will fill it.

TURNER J. JOHNSON

"John"

"There never once was a red-haired angel"

If singing were pennies, Terry would be a millionaire. He started off on the right foot by being our Glee Club president. He is also noted for his acting ability, art, and neat appearance. Terry's ambition for the future is to be a television comedian. He plans to go to college for this training, but has not yet decided which college will be the lucky one. Good luck, Terry, and may your desires come true, and your shows be many.

ANN ELIZABETH JOUDREY

"Ann"

"A jolly good sport is she"

Ann will be remembered among the Senior Class for always lending a helping hand wherever it was needed. If you hear a persistent laugh or any talk about the best baseball player in the American League, Ted Williams, you will be sure to find Ann near at hand. Even though you may hear an occasional groan while she tries to do her Math or Spanish, she usually comes through with a smile. Ann hasn't decided whether to be a teacher or a nurse. Whichever is your decision, you have our wishes for good luck, Ann.

CAROLE J. KEEGAN

"Carole"

"Quiet ways bring happy days"

Our classmate with the dark eyes and hair has a sunny smile. Beneath her quiet manner Carole has a warm and friendly heart and a sense of humor appreciated by all who know her. Last year Carole took Dramatics, a fact which resulted in her being elected as an associate member of the N. F. L. this year. Earnest in her work and faithful to her duties, you may be sure that she will be appreciated in whatever field of work she may choose.

MIRIAM R. KENDER

"Mi'am"

"Talks she late, talks she early, talks she all the day"

Mi'am's merry, infectious laugh and constant chatter have amused us many times. Her dark, mischievous eyes and pleasant personality have won her many friends in and outside of school. She played on our hockey team and was willing to help the class when called upon. Miriam's future is undecided, but we have an idea that fate's "Ron" devout will have Miriam one of the first in the class to enter the matrimonial field.

ROBERT JOSEPH KENNEDY

"Bob"

"Smiles are the language of love"

Bob displays talent in many lines, but chief among his abilities is his knack for winning friends. Whether you see him in school or working at the A & P, nine times out of ten you will find Bob with a great, big, friendly smile. Industrious and reliable, Bob has proved himself to be a willing and capable worker in all class activities. With his smile, wavy blond hair, and likeable personality, he's bound to succeed.

CHARLES DANIEL KING

"Charlie"

"Labor is thy strength"

Charlie is one of our strong and silent classmates. His up-to-date assignment book and unlimited supply of pencils are a source of constant amazement to us. With his hard work and steady habits, Charlie is sure to succeed. Freshman Social 1; Traffic Squad 4; Orchestra 1, 2; Yearbook 4.

CATHERINE LOUISE LEAHY

"Cathy"

*"Live today, remember the past—
Never look at the future"*

Cathy—our newest asset—we have gained from Milford High. Pert, cute, and popular would describe Cathy to a T. Those Irish eyes betray a sparkling vivaciousness that bubbles over at the slightest excuse. Being new has not daunted Cathy's flair for making friends and all are not of her own sex either! Cathy's plans for kindergarten teaching are sure to be a success.

A. A. 4; Victory Dance 4; Yearbook 4; Senior Choir 4.

HARVEY AUSTIN LERNER

"Maxie"

"A good tongue is a good weapon"

Maxie is the wonder of the class. He's president of this and captain of that all at once! One of those people who are always right up with the times, he'll have the most logical answer to any question. He's also our prize debater, and can convince you of anything. Max went through four years of football without an injury and then—a broken nose in the last Westboro game. Look out, you professors at Wesleyan. Here comes Shrewsbury's Lerner!

MARILYN JEAN LINDBERG

"Lynn"

"Pretty to walk with, witty to talk with"

Lynn has livened up many a Lambda Tau meeting with her bubbling vivacity. Popularity and Lynn are synonymous. Many are the times when some unsuspecting male has fallen under the spell of her winning personality. Numberless friends has Lynn and we all know she shall be a success in anything she may undertake. Never change, Lynn—that way you can't lose.

WILLIAM ALAN LOCKIE

"Red"

"Happy am I; from care I am free. Why can't they all be contented like me?"

Red is one of the most happy-go-lucky boys in our class. His good humor, wit, and love of fun make him good company in any crowd. The class has derived much laughter from Bill's antics. But he also has his serious moments. His studies never seem to baffle him as they do so many of us. May good luck follow you in the Army and whatever else you may do, Red!

Mardi Gras Dance 3; Victory Dance 4; Yearbook 4.

WILLIAM LOWE

"Bill"

"Just a little independent"

Bill is one of the onlookers in the Senior Class—but not in Math! His mathematical mind has been the envy of many of us—especially in Geometry and "Trig" Classes. Bill has won his friends these past four years with his quiet and easy going personality. This year he has given his services to the Senior Choir. Best of luck always, Bill. CARMELLA MARIANO

"Carmella"

"Laugh and the world laughs with you"

Friendliness, talkativeness, and willingness to help are Carmella's chief characteristics. Many a dull class has been brightened by her constant chatter. But underneath this outward sign of talkativeness is a poised, but still fun-loving manner that has the power to make most strangers feel right at home in her presence. Always ready to lend a helping hand to a friend in need, Carmella is sure to make a good worker in whatever field she enters.

RUTH ALICE JEAN MAZUS

"Ruthie"

"You've gotta stay happy"

Ruth is noted for a sunny disposition and neatness. It seems that when there are more pleasant things to do, she finds it hard to concentrate on her school work. Isn't that right, Ruthie? With your neat and friendly way, Ruth, we know you'll succeed in the commercial field.

DONALD RICHARD MITCHELL

"Mitch"

"Sought after by many"

Star basketball captain and smooth personality are synonymous with our Don. And are we lucky to have Mitch! When he first came to us in our Freshman year, he was on the reserved side, but that soon disappeared; so now as a senior, he is one of the most popular boys in the class. Don well deserves the title of best athlete, but his athletic ability is not his only attribute. His blond hair and nice manners receive wholehearted approval from the female contingent; isn't that so, Fadge? With a combination of good looks, personality, and athletic ability there can be nothing but success in the future for Don.

JANET MITCHELL

"Pudge"

*"She could look Dan Cupid in the eye,
And make that trouble-maker sigh"*

Janet is an active member of N.F.L. and won highest honor in Junior Prize Speaking. Always well-dressed, you can be sure that Janet has more than one male in her date-life, with emphasis on Wesleyan. What would we have done without Janet and her little convertible? She is undecided as to what she will do after graduation; but whatever her goal is, we know she'll be a success.

EVELYN JOAN NELSON

"Dolly"

"Her hair is her crowning glory"

Dolly is everything her name implies. An angel in disguise—but what a disguise! Who could resist that contagious laughter, those ever sparkling eyes, that gold velvet hair? We don't see Dolly in school very much—but we can always assure ourselves of a fleeting glimpse of her as that red convertible flies by. Dolly's admirers range from Holy Cross and Wilbraham to dear old Beal. Success? Happiness? They shall be hers for the asking.

WERNER M. NEUPERT

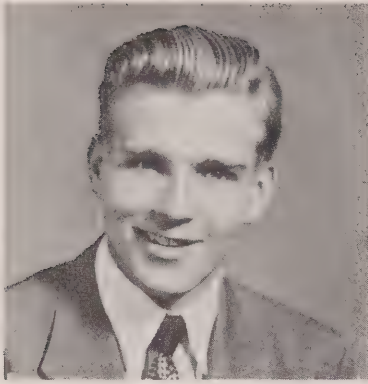

"Werner"

"Today he follows, tomorrow he leads"

The fellow with the free, but lengthy words, the genius of all subjects, the student with the scientific answers—we introduce Werner. True, he is studious; however, he enjoys a good laugh and takes part in the fun. Math is probably Werner's specialty. With his intelligence, Werner will surely succeed at Worcester Tech.

WARREN A. NEWTON

"Bud"

"Never a dull moment"

Mischievous, dependable, likeable, an athlete, a worthwhile friend, a true man—these words describe Bud to a "T". Newt has been an enthusiastic athlete since his early days on the football team. He has also been a very valuable part of the crew. Bud is popular with all. Being elected President of the Hi-Y is proof enough of this. Bud plans to enter the Army Air Force as a mechanic. His combination of nice looks and personality are sure to bring him success.

ANDREW PHILIP

"Fish"

"Silence may be golden, but I have a silver tongue"

We hear you, but where are you? Fish may not be the tallest boy in Beal, but his skill at basketball proves that he doesn't have to be. Football was on his list, too. With his incessant chatter and ever-ready smile, Fish has become to our class what frosting is to cake. We sometimes wonder if the twinkle in his eye is a permanent fixture or if it's meant for somebody? Hats off to Fish—may success always be his.

CHESTER POLAND

"Chet"

"There's a twinkle of mischief in this lad's eye"

Chet has been one of the standbys of the Senior Class since he joined us in our Junior year. Always ready with a helpful hand at class activities and athletics, that's Chet. His neat appearance, sharp clothes and flashing brown eyes are his trademarks. Chet's sincere nature and good sportsmanship have won him many friends. Although his future is undecided, we know he will be a success with his many virtues.

JEANNE RICHARDSON"Richie"

*"It's better to be short and shine,
Than to be tall and cast a shadow"*

Sugar and spice 'n everything nice—that's Jeanne. Her sweet disposition and a will to succeed will enable her to attain her goal. A pleasant smile and a good word for everyone will win her the friendship of all whom she may encounter. Jeanne plans to enter the field of dietetics, and we know that success and happiness will be hers.

MARY ELIZABETH ROSS*"Mary"

"Three-fifths of her genius and two-fifths of her fudge"

Hungry? Apple pie, fudge, or biscuits—come to Mary, our cooking expert. But there's more to Mary than her cooking! One of our best athletes, she was goalie in hockey and led the basketball team for two years—"Half-court Ross" they call her! A hard worker, she combines pleasure with work and tops it off with a smile envied by many, and it's with this combination that we're sure she'll make a successful career in physiotherapy. Good luck, Mary!

PHYLLIS ANNE-MARIE ROSSI"Phyl"

"Cheerful as the summer sunshine"

Phyl's bright eyes and a cheery smile contribute to the friendly manner she has displayed during her two years at Shrewsbury High. Her high-pitched laughter has been welcomed by members of the class on many a gloomy day. We are all familiar with Phyl's countless jokes and stories. We hear her goal is dress designing, but even the steadiest minds change, and maybe she will change hers because—well—you know what changes every girl's mind. With her cheering personality we know she'll be a success in whatever she may choose.

ROBERT WILLIAM RYAN*"Rosy"

"Why should life all labor be"

Popularity, romantic air, witticisms and activity in sports are all in a package we call Rosy. Rosy will always be remembered as one of the friendliest boys in the school. Isn't that true, girls? His buoyant personality and refreshing, original wit are a few of his many assets. Whenever there is trouble brewing, Rosy is usually stewing. We know that the personality Rosy has charmed us with will pave the way to success.

JAMES SANDY

"Sandy"

"Never trouble trouble 'till trouble troubles you"

In introducing Sandy, we can bring out fine qualities. Although you may have to dig a little deep because of his modesty, they are definitely there. He can be noisy when he wants to, but he can also be quiet when silence is appreciated. Even though Sandy likes quietness, we often see a gleam of mischief in his eyes. Best of luck in the future, Jim.

CONSTANCE MAY SEYMOUR

"Connie"

"Beguiling many, but beguiled by none"

Connie's lovely sparkling smile and flirtatious blue eyes have beguiled many a handsome specimen of the opposite sex! She is easily placed on the top of the list of class beauties. Connie has often kept us entertained at parties given at her home. Her infectious high-pitched giggle seems to make her "Seymour-pink" blush even more pronounced. Whatever Connie decides to do in the future, may success await her.

ELIZABETH MAE SHEPARD

"Beth"

"May heaven its choicest blessings send on such a girl and such a friend"

We are proud to claim Beth as a perfect lady as well as a perfect friend. Her contagious giggle, bouyant personality and very neat appearance are just a few of her many assets. Beth has helped on the hockey field as well as managing teams. Her main interest is a certain senior man. Beth will be remembered as the girl with the ever-present smile. Her wonderful disposition will lead to nothing but happiness, in whatever she decides to undertake.

MARY SIMONIAN

"Mary"

"Few are they who do all things well"

To have Mary as a pal is to have an honest, sincere, and trustworthy friend. Her quiet manner and uncomplaining attitude have made her well liked by all she has worked with. Although she has always acted reserved in classes, Mary could always be depended upon to attend the "big" games, cheering the boys on to victory. The ambition and intelligence which Mary possesses are bound to make her a leader in the secretarial field.

MARGUERITE CONSTANCE STOLPE "Margie"

"Happiness is a thing called Johnny"

Margie, our attractive, brown-eyed brunette is gifted with the ability of laughing easily. Her bright and cheery disposition, together with a charming twinkle in her eyes, has earned her popularity. Margie has many friends, and all of us will miss her sunny smile and pleasant quips. Best of luck in whatever you undertake, Margie!

ROBERT TONELLI

"Tony"

"A long smile goes a long way"

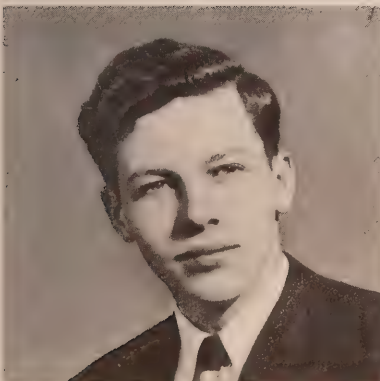

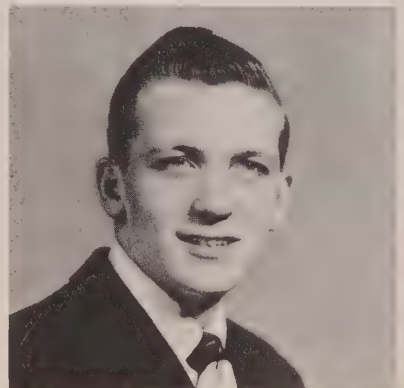

Tony's winning smile has made many friends during his four years at Shrewsbury. He has enjoyed participating in baseball and football, along with other sports. We can always be sure that Tony will turn out for all our social events. Good luck at Cushing, Bob. With your smile you'll always have many friends.

WILLIAM JUDSON WEBB

"Bill"

*"Those about him from him read
The perfect ways of honor"*

Tall, nice looking, neatly dressed—that's our Bill. Whenever anyone is in need of transportation, Bill is always ready to lend his "Chevy." He was the very able president of the Student Council this year. We also hear that he is active in 4-H work. Bill plans to further his education at the University of Massachusetts, and someday he hopes to own a farm in Wisconsin. Our best wishes go with you, Bill.

Class History

We, the time honored seniors, having resolved not to write a corny class history, submit the following brutal truth and unvarnished facts:

In September 1946 we began our treacherous journey toward our golden goal of graduation (brutal truth!). There was something unusual about the large group of freshmen arriving from Coolidge Junior High which prophesied that this was to be a unique class. These pupils plus those already in the realms of Beal High since junior high days and a few new residents held their first class elections in September with Dick Stimets being elected president; Jane Greenwood, vice-president; Fran Deming, secretary; and Dolly Nelson, class treasurer. For the benefit of getting better acquainted the class sponsored a Freshman Social in February of 1947. That was the only social event of the Class of 1950 in that year. The annual Freshman Prize Speaking Contest was held in May, with Fran Deming capturing first prize, Janet Mitchell taking second, and Harvey Lerner coming in third.

Our sophomore year started off with the desire to have more social activities. Joined by a few more pupils from Coolidge, the class elected Ray Charette as president, Dick Stimets as vice-president, Fran Deming as secretary, and Dolly Nelson as Sophomore Social, which was highlighted by hilarious entertainment by some of the class members, for the members of the class and their guests. In the spring of 1948, the first money-making venture of the Sophomore Class was held—the Sophomore Hop. This gala social event featured the music of Salamone's Orchestra.

Before we had time to think, September arrived again, and we found ourselves juniors—half way through the most glorious days of our young lives. The returns from the polls showed Harvey Lerner, president; Margie D'Amato, vice-president; Jeanne Carpenter, secretary; and Marilyn Lindberg, treasurer. Getting the jump on the other classes, the Junior Class sponsored the Football Frolic on Armistice Day, 1948. This year was the first year in which the class undertook the responsibility of selling Christmas cards as a financial aid to the dwindling treasury. In February, the class held a Mardi Gras Dance amid balloons, paper hats, masks, and other colorful decorations, with music by Salamone's Orchestra. But the big night was yet to come. On June 10, it arrived—the Junior Prom. Besides being a great social success for everyone in attendance, the "big" dance brought a handsome profit to the class. It was even recognized as the most profitable Prom in recent years. The Junior Prize Speaking Contest was held in May with Janet Mitchell winning first prize, Terry Johnson taking second, and Marilyn Lindberg, third. Thus ended our third year of high school.

Having had a very successful junior year, in September, 1949, we, the seniors, were determined to make this graduating class of 1950 one of the most outstanding classes ever to leave the echoes of their laughter in the halls of Beal High. To start things off on the right foot, the class chose Ed Garrepy as president, Harvey Lerner as vice-president, Jeanne Carpenter as secretary, and Margie D'Amato as class treasurer. The social activities of the class began with the Victory Dance on Thanksgiving evening with music by George Adrian. This dance, also, was a financial success for the class. Spring came, and with it came "Showboat." As usual, we were all wondering if we could produce a successful show, and as usual, we did. Two eventful performances swelled the class treasury, and proved fun for all who participated.

Now we find ourselves at the end of the ropes—all set for graduation. Now is the time when we look back on the past four years and measure the fun we've had both individually and as a group.

Class Prophecy

You are there! The time December, 1975. In our fair land there is civil strife. A revolution impends. Two great camps have taken stands on the issue . . . labor versus capital. This problem is the most serious ever faced by our country. On this day, December 29, 1975, a meeting is taking place; a meeting that will decide the fate of every working man and every industrialist in our nation. "Scoop" D'Amato, a hard-bitten, aggressive reporter for Dick Wahlstrom's East Cupcake Scandal Sheet, has helped to publicize this meeting by her fearless articles. This meeting is the twenty-fifth reunion of the Class of '50 and is being held at the auditorium of Garrepy's School for Girls. (Rumor has it that his ballet teacher, Jan Ireland, is threatening to resign because of the furor this meeting is causing.) Every person in this nation is holding his breath as President Garrepy is rapping his gavel on the giant rostrum, and the meeting begins!

Wait a minute! Labor leader Bill Lockie is rushing down the aisle, pistol in hand, ready to defend his "rights". His assistant, Bill Lowe, and his wife, Phyl Rossi, are following meekly. It is rumored that Lockie's Revolutionary Committee for the Establishment of Fiendish Means of Destruction has secured the services of atomic physicists Werner Neupert and Charlie King—for a monetary consideration.

LOCKIE HAS NOW REACHED THE ROSTRUM. He snatches the microphone from President Garrepy. We switch you to the rostrum.

"My friends: As philosophers Louis Dean and Bob Giard stated in their recent publication, The Essence of Individualism, 'The time for action has come.' Ever since poor Maxie Lerner (now rattling the bars in the State Hospital) released the reins of government, that dastardly usurper, "Uncle Joe" Fohlin, with the aid of propagandist "Yak" Philip and forest ranger "Smilin' Bob" Bowker, has been brow-beating the common man! That deserter, Bob Tonelli with his "Mansion House by the Sea" is cow-towing to those grandes dames of society, Miriam Kender Reis, Nancy Chalker Messier, Margie Stolpe Knipe, Gloria Carroll, Carole Keegan, and Ruthie Cathline. I am warning these people that if they do not change their ways, my body guards, "Crusher" Armstrong, "Pretty Boy" Briggs, "Scarface" Newton, and "Half-Court" Ross, will quickly remedy the situation . . ."

FBI men Chet Poland and Don Mitchell have just entered and are ejecting bodily revolutionist Lockie from the hall; while, in the balcony, their wives, Beth and Fadge, are looking on with horror and amazement.

While farmer-mediator Bill Webb prepares to give his side of the discussion, we will give you a brief summary of conditions in this fair and hectic land.

Jay Dunn, proprietor of Dunn's House of Beauty, has recently fired his assistants, Carmella Mariano and Phyl Charbonneau, for giving Ardeth Clifford and Joyce Hurd shampoos with Karo Syrup. Business man Danny Corcoran has found "his ideal" in secretary Mary Simonian. He has given her a five-year contract. Jane Greenwood is in Africa acting as secretary of the Ubangi Student Council. Chick Annunziata is a male model for Adam Hat Company. At the races we find jockey Ray Charette preparing to mount "Bing" Prosser's pride and joy, "Petroleum Ethel." Hard Luck Kennedy is trying to mooch a dollar off Millionairess Carole M. van Gibson. "Aga Khan" Sandy is here with his harem, Gloria Amaral, Jeanne Carpenter, Joanne Hickey, Elsie Harvey, and Ruth Mazus. It is rumored that Cathy Leahy will be the sixth—for obvious reasons. Connie Seymour has her own harem. Ann Joudrey is in seventh heaven because she is now employed by the man who shook the hand of the man who shook the hand of the man who shook the hand of Ted WILLIAMS!!!!

Now let us return to Garrepy Hall, where Bill Webb has just completed his oration. Frannie Deming, who has left her aged and ailing husband in the care of male nurse Russell Henry, is now demanding that bartender Rosy Ryan be jailed for creating a disturbance in Bresnahan's Saloon, the hot-bed of the Laborite revolution. President Garrepy is now reminding hecklers Jane Boyce and Joy Henne to refrain from rollerskating up and down in front of the speaker. Capitalist Peace Committee members Jeanne Richardson, Bobby Callen, Solange Albert, and Jan Goodell are imploring Loren Forrister to refrain from giving President Garrepy a hot-foot.

Hold it! Whitey Carlson just fell out of the balcony and landed smack in Jeanie Cartier's arms—she was waiting underneath, naturally!

While Jan Mitchell, Dolly Nelson, and Lynn Lindberg, New York play girls, battle over admirers, Bill Lockie and his revolutionary cohorts are flinging open the doors of the hall and with pistols blazing are now entering the meeting place. The walls are rattling with the turmoil of the battle. Suddenly, in the midst of all this strife Terry Johnson has risen to LEAD THE MILITANT FORCES OF CAPITALISM—out the back door! Dick Brown is chuckling to himself as he slowly pulls a hydrogen bomb from his back pocket.

It looks like the end of civil government! America is in ruins. Every noble-hearted American bows his head in mourning. The Class of 1950 has destroyed American government.

WAIT A MINUTE, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN! A FLASH! America is saved. We are free! International Millionaire Bob Borgatti has just bought the deed to the United States and will begin reorganization tomorrow!!!

Class Will

We, the miserly and penny-pinching seniors, could not find a reasonable lawyer, so here goes—

To Miss Churchill we leave a brand new Bible.

To Miss Sawin we leave David Park and Pat DeMaria to liven up her class.

To Miss Prouty we leave another trip to Europe!

To Mr. Jacobs we leave a copy of This I Remember by Eleanor Roosevelt.

To Mr. Lalli we leave a box of cigars.

To Mr. Kehoe we leave two whistles—one for the ballplayers and the other for hotrods.

To Mr. Cooke we leave peace and quiet.

We leave Miss Mulholland and Mr. Baccaro a nose-counter for future class trips.

To Mr. Connelly we leave an unlimited supply of movie film.

To Mr. George we leave a new lab with a sponge floor!

To Mr. Martin we leave a bull whip.

To Mr. Lavelle we leave our vote for "the teacher of the year".

To "Coach" we leave a bevy of pretty girls for the members of his football team to date the night before a football game.

To Miss Chase we leave a team who will win some games and turn in their uniforms on time—but won't have half as much fun!!!

To Miss Parks we leave a personal messenger to fetch sandwiches fourth period.

The senior girls leave Mr. Snow with regrets that we can't take him with us.

To Miss Lothrop we leave some seniors who will not attempt to rifle the "Town Crier" treasury.

To Miss Gucciardi we leave a new Cadillac.

To Miss Dawson we leave another Terry Johnson to keep her seventh graders amused.

To Mrs. Hamel we leave ten volumes of spelling demons.

To Miss Shea we leave a drawerful of cleaning rags to use on "cleaning day".

To Miss Donelan we leave an Oxford accent.

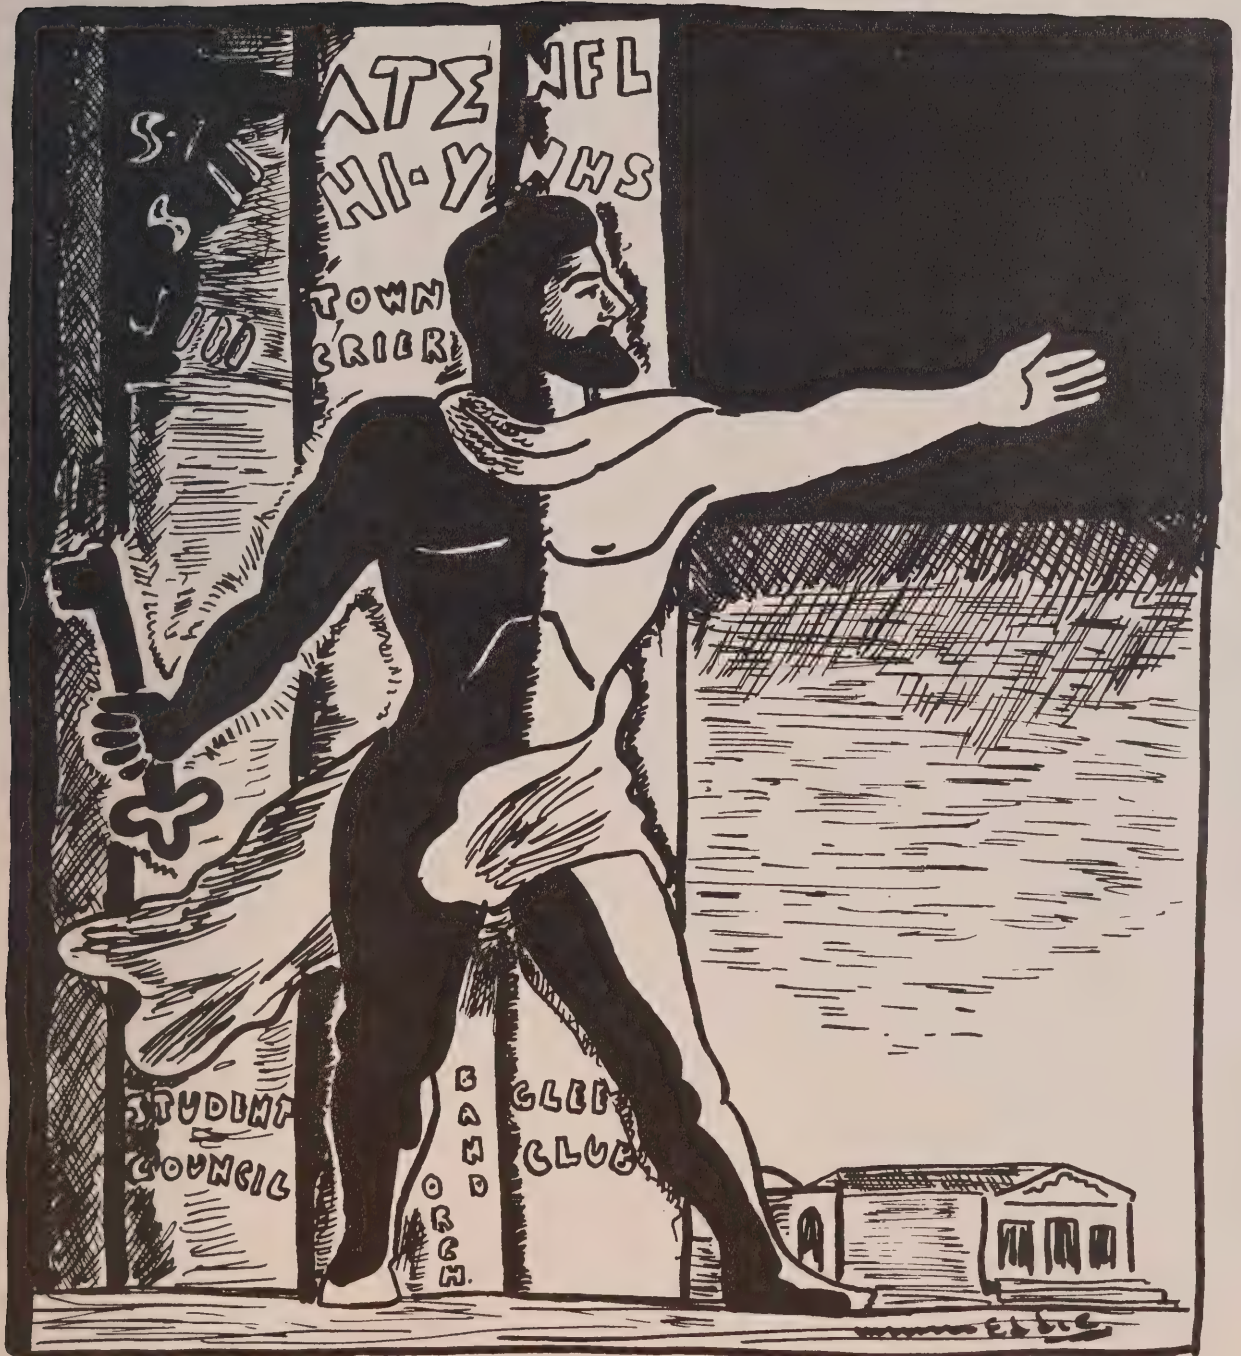

To Mr. Bowker we leave a book of jokes.

To Miss Nelson we leave the Junior Class—heaven help her.

To Mrs. Fipphen we leave a student who doesn't take a whole year to make a skirt.

To Mrs. Marshon we leave another Bill Webb to keep her busy.
 To Mr. Sturtevant we leave a better site for his school building.
 To Miss Gummer we leave a year's service by a willing junior who will polish her car daily.
 Ed Garrepy leaves his left-handed drawings of anyone and anything to Don Hesselton.
 Rock Lerner leaves—the football team grieves.
 Jeanne Carpenter leaves her interest in Holy Cross to the future senior girls who will then realize that a college man is the height of perfection.
 Margie D'Amato leaves her interest in a certain local drugstore to Jackie Hickey.
 Solange Albert leaves her French accent to John Pedone.
 Gloria Amaral gives her dark hair and beautiful eyes back to Elizabeth Taylor.
 Chick Annunziata leaves his absentee record to Pete Anderson.
 Bob Borgatti and Bob Giard leave the unhappy position of being the butt of everybody's jokes to some poor Junior.
 "Scarelli" Bowker leaves the girls with tears in their eyes.
 Mike Bresnahan leaves—with Marilyn Lindberg.
 Dick Brown leaves Peace of Mind to Mr. George.
 Barbara Callen leaves her quiet ways to "Bingie" Zuromskis.
 Whitey Carlson leaves all he owns to his younger brother "Nelly".
 Jean Cartier leaves a safe hiding place behind a wastepaper basket to some unfortunate basketball player.
 Ruth Cathline leaves, as usual, with her little red hat.
 Phyllis Charbonneau leaves her place in the mirror to anyone who can get there.
 Ray Charette leaves his height to Bob Englund.
 Jay Dunn leaves for Juniper Hill.
 "Bilbo" Fohlin leaves his position to some aspiring student politician.
 Carole M. Gibson doesn't know whether she wants to leave Mr. Connelly or not.
 Russell Henry leaves on his motorcycle.
 Jo Anne Hickey leaves her endearing young charms to anyone who dares to pick them up.
 Janet Ireland leaves her vivaciousness to Anne Seguin.
 Ann Joudrey leaves her corny jokes to Carol Bonardi.
 Terry Johnson leaves his ability to act and his Stradavarius to Jack Benny.
 Miriam Kender leaves her shy, reserved manner to Carol Olson.
 Charlie King leaves his everlasting ambition to some deserving Junior.
 Bill Lockie leaves his independence to Gary Crossman.
 Don Mitchell leaves his athletic ability to Jim Collamore.
 Janet Mitchell leaves for Northboro.
 Dolly Nelson leaves her crowning glory to Sonny Bates.
 Fish Philip leaves his "yakety-yak" to Don Green.
 Chet Poland leaves—Hey, Beth, wait up!!!
 Rosy Ryan leaves his ability to get into trouble to Guido D'Alessandro.
 Bob Tonelli leaves his amiable smile and his way with the girls to Rudy Alano.
 Bill Webb leaves his curly hair to Marvin Sanborn.
 Danny Corcoran leaves his ability as an oarsman to "Squash" Johnson.

ACTIVITIES

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

STUDENT COUNCIL

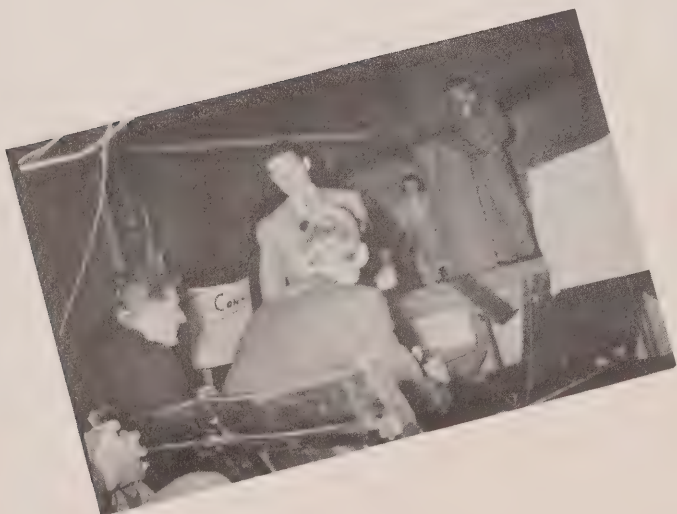

Front row from left: B. Putnam, F. Zuromskis, J. Ireland, J. Greenwood-Secretary, W. Webb-President, F. Deming-Vice-President, M. Milde, J. Ireland, M. Bell.

Second row: M. Holbrook, T. Betti, P. Mathieu, J. Firmin, D. Flynn, D. Taylor, C. Safford.

Third row: Mr. J. Cooke-advisor, B. Norton, E. Garrepy, W. Neupert.

The Student Council which is composed of three freshmen, four sophomores, five juniors and six seniors is the connecting link between the student body and the faculty. The members of the council are elected by their respective classes at the beginning of each school year. The advisors to the Council are Miss Ethel Sawin and Mr. James Cooke, principal.

The duties of the Student Council include supervising class elections, assisting at Open House, sponsoring the Junior Red Cross Council, and handling complaints from the students. The suggestion box provides a means for students to make suggestions on matters concerning the betterment of the school and often makes for better and more sympathetic faculty-student relations.

TRAFFIC SQUAD

First row: M. Ross, M. Lindberg, J. Ireland, H. Lerner, Captain, F. Deming, Captain, W. Newton, R. Charette, D. Fohlin, J. Cartier, B. Shepard.

Second row: V. Hesselton, R. Loomer, P. Milde, M. Sanborn, R. Sandy, N. Judson, J. Firmin, J. Dube, A. Seguin, J. Henne, M. D'Amato, M. Simonian, M. Simonian, R. Borgatti, B. Norton.

Third row: R. Kennedy, W. Linton, C. King, E. Garrepy, W. Neupert.

This year besides sending two delegates to the New England Student Government Association Conference at Andover Academy, and attending the State Student Council Conference the Shrewsbury Council was host to the Spring meeting of the Central Division of the Massachusetts Association of Student Councils.

Another of the student organizations, an essential part of the school program, is the Traffic Squad. It was initiated in 1931 as a democratic solution to the corridor regulation problems. The members of the Traffic Squad are elected by the National Honor Society and Faculty.

The Junior Red Cross Council is a comparatively new organization in the school. It was formerly under the jurisdiction of the Student Council but now has formed a Council of its own. The aims of the Junior Red Cross Council are threefold: to promote better relations between the United States and foreign countries; to help war-stricken countries; and to make the physically handicapped more cheerful. This year the Council has filled gift boxes and made cribbage boards, candy baskets, and tray mats for the Rutland Veterans Hospital.

JUNIOR RED CROSS COUNCIL

First row: C. Flynn, J. Ireland, P. Mathieu, B. Putnam, M. Holbrook, J. Towns, M. Swan.

Second row: D. Corcoran, J. Cox, M. Salvador, M. Milde, C. Bonardi, J. Breen, W. Anderson.

LITERARY ACTIVITIES

The school paper, "The Town Crier," has become an ever important part of school life to the Student of Major Beal. When the first signs of the newspaper appear one may see students hurrying about, borrowing a dime for the latest issue. From that moment on until the closing bell rings, students (much to their teachers' dismay) have their heads buried in a "Town Crier" reading the latest gossip and jokes and discovering the newest of poets and short story artists. Little do they realize that for a hectic three weeks before this issue, the staff of the paper is going "mad"—actually mad! The editor is dashing about, a little late as usual, contacting members of her staff. The staff heads then contact members of their staff. After poor Miss Lothrop has contacted everyone and all material is in, she sets about making up a dummy copy—a difficult and sticky job. Sometimes our assistant editor or, on rare occasions, our editor helps her (?). At last, the commercial department retypes the materials, prints it, and prepares it for the student body. On such days as this, Home Room Period usually finds a dozen or so of the staff clustered about the desk in Miss Nelson's room, obtaining their copies to sell. Harvey Lerner, business manager, is seated in Room 12 diligently separating dimes, quarters, nickels, pennies, and occasionally—a dollar! The "Town Crier" has done exceptionally well this year! For proof, turn to our "Remember" pages and gaze at the ad the staff of the "Town Crier" donated. (Of course, there are quite a few seniors on the staff.)

YEAR BOOK STAFF

"Confusion now hath made his masterpiece!"—and the yearbook staff certainly was in confusion most of the time, deciding to take it easy in order to see into the new century. The meetings of the heads of the staff in the Teachers' Lunch Room were among the most lively ever witnessed in Beal High! Tables were strewn with past yearbooks, pictures, papers, and Ed Garrepy's miscellaneous drawings, Jane Greenwood diligently took notes on whatever was noteworthy, and Harvey Lerner, editor, would continually strive to bring in an idea between jokes! However, a glance at our yearbook will show you that out of fun comes perfection, out of light-heartedness comes originality, and out of us seniors comes a masterpiece! The fun was intermingled with hard work, especially that of the write-up committee headed by Jeanne Carpenter. Mike Bresnahan could often be heard lamenting to the class members, "Where are your ads?" A good deal of psychology had to be employed—Mike never stated how much we already had in the treasury. The Yearbook was fun, it was hard work, but above all it is proof of the ability and originality of the Senior Class of 1950.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society was established by the Association of Secondary School Principals for the purpose of recognizing students who are outstanding in the qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Near the end of the school year seven percent of the Junior Class is elected to the society. During the year eleven percent of the Senior Class is chosen. Candidates, who must be in the upper third of their class, are selected by the faculty and faculty council.

During the year the society participates in many activities. It helps the Student Council in conducting the annual elections. Members serve as ushers at the Open House. As a means of raising funds the society sponsored an illustrated lecture for students. A successful auction has also been held. For Memorial Day the society decorates the war memorial on the Common. Other activities include contributing to various worthwhile causes, such as the Shrewsbury Home Nursing Society and CARE.

The members realize that, although they have been elected to the society, they must progress much further before they can fulfill the high ideals of character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

FRENCH CLUB

President	PHYLLIS MILDE
Vice-President	JOAN HEITIN
Secretary	JEAN DUBE
Treasurer	LORRAINE CASASANTO
Advisor	MISS GUCCIARDI

The French Club is an organization for all the students studying the French language, the purpose of which is to promote better understanding between the American and French people.

Every month the president conducts a business meeting which is followed by entertainment consisting of French films and slides, puzzles, music and games.

The main project of the club is the sending of packages of food and clothing, once a month to Eugene Bocker, of Brittany, France, a French boy whom the club adopted.

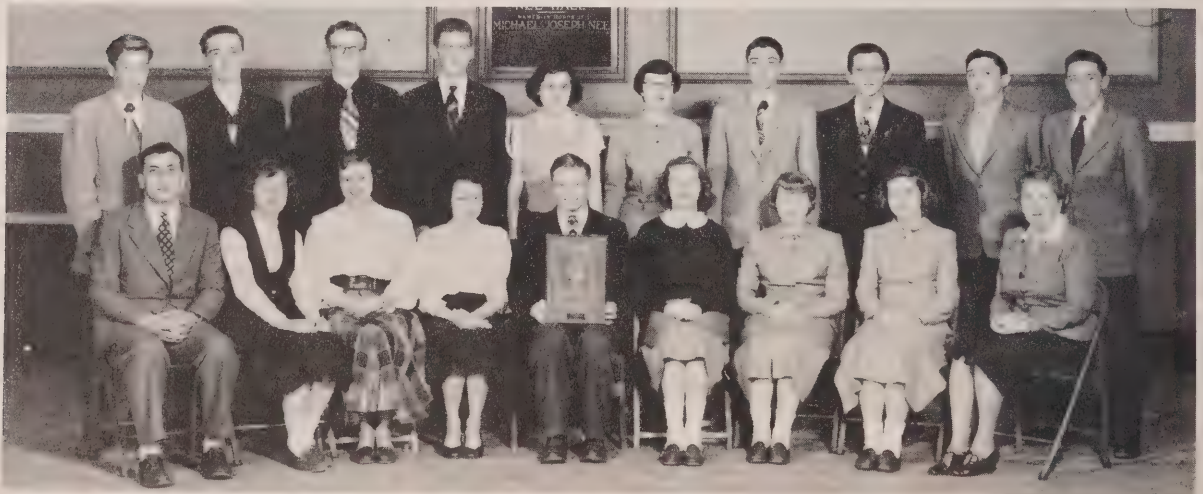

This is the fourth anniversary of the French Club and there are at present thirty-five members. All credit for the Club's success is due to Miss Gucciardi and her untiring efforts.

SPEAKING ACTIVITIES

Throughout the past year, Shrewsbury High has maintained its enviable position of being one of the "talkingest" in New England. With the National Forensic League Chapter as the master speaking organization, work was carried on in debate, oratorical, humorous, and dramatic declamation. The Chapter received national recognition in winning the Outstanding Chapter in New England Award. Frances Deming, Janet Mitchell, and Terry Johnson won firsts in the New England Tournament; Shrewsbury won second in the entire tournament. Throughout the year the Forensic League has been busy participating in, and planning speaking contests, and replenishing its depleted treasury.

During the past year, also, debating and debaters maintained their traditions. Trips to debates and tournaments produced such strange happenings as hour-long staring contests, wrestling matches, bowling escapades, and dancing at the "Cafe Rendezvous." Over twenty-five debaters participated in more than sixty debates. And in spite of assorted idiosyncrasies, the team won third in The New England Tournament.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

Front row: Mr. Lalli, M. Holbrook, F. Zuromskis, J. Greenwood, H. Lerner, F. Deming, J. Mitchell, N. Judson, Miss Churchill.
Second row: D. Fohlin, R. Hastings, T. Johnson, W. Anderson, J. Antoun, C. Keegan, W. Neupert, D. Heslerton, P. Kirby, B. Norton.

If speaking activities illustrate the rule that the unusual happens most of the time, Junior Prize Speaking was no exception. It all began when Franny Deming embarked for Denver several days before the contest and ended with Janet Mitchell winning first prize, Terry Johnson, second and Marilyn Lindburg, third. Between these events we saw Mrs. Hamel worrying about Terry Johnson's hybrid twenty-three minute extemporaneous-humorous-dramatic declamation, a mix-up as to the nature of gentlemen's attire, and finally six nervous speakers enduring the agony of waiting for their turns and the results. And as usual, order came from confusion; the Class of '50 put on one of the finest of Junior Prize Speaking contests.

The 1949-1950 school year was filled with activity for our speakers—trips, prize speaking contests, card parties, plays, and debates led from one eventful week to the next. Miss Churchill and Mr. Lalli contributed unstintingly in time and effort to make this year a successful one. Indeed it was.

DEBATING CLUB

The musical opportunities have been extended to six different groups this year. Each class boasts a separate choir under the able direction of Mr. Roger Snow. The Band, again active and combined with the Orchestra, has satisfactorily supplied instrumental music.

The Freshman Choir has presented concerts at the Masonic Hospital and Cushing Veterans Hospital. The Junior and Freshman Choir combined and co-operated with the Parent-Teachers Association for a Pop Concert that was enjoyed by many. The Freshman Choir also combined with the Senior Choir for the Christmas Assembly.

All the choirs joined for an operetta, "Words and Music," which gave many of the boys and girls a chance to show their talent.

During the spring, the Senior Class "Showboat." This choir also supplied the music for Class Day and Graduation exercises.

JUNIOR CHOIR

First row: J. Ireland, V. Hesselton, A. Seguin, A. Fairbanks, T. Betti, R. Loomer, M. Sencabaugh, J. Firmin, P. Milde, F. Zuromskis, D. Flynn, B. Putnam, G. Riley, C. Bonardi, F. Sandy.  Fifth row: B. Francis, G. Harrington, G. Whiting, R. Barry, P. Kennedy, B. Bryant, G. Crossman, B. Cellucci, R. Gendron, R. Hastings, J. Green, D. Foley, C. Cate, D. Hesselton.

Shrewsbury High School was represented at the Massachusetts State Musical Festival, which was held in Milford, by a group of forty voices.

The Band has proved itself a valuable asset to the school this year. Its members are mostly junior high pupils but it boasts a few senior high members. It has played at a few of our basketball games this year and assisted in the presentation of "Showboat". A band concert in May was also made and they appeared in the Memorial Day Parade.

The Orchestra again has had an active year. Its participation at the Christmas musical, National Honor Installations, Class Day and Graduation exercises has proved its value to our school.

With all the choirs and the Band and Orchestra, Shrewsbury has had an active year, musically.

FRESHMAN CHOIR

Front row: J. McArdle, W. Sanders, G. D'Alessandro, J. Johnson, J. Wilson, R. Folsom, F. Keegan, B. Mastro, N. Carlson.

LAMBDA TAU SIGMA

President	MARY ROSS
Vice-President	JANE GREENWOOD
Secretary	JANET IRELAND
Treasurer	JANET MITCHELL

Lambda Tau Sigma has enjoyed a very worthwhile season. Under the guidance of Mrs. Russell Bath, the organization launched its social year with a successful penny sale. This was followed by a hay-ride which occurred on Halloween Nite.

Next on the agenda was our annual Christmas Ball, which is always the high light of our year. This year the Ball was christened the Kandy Kane and the theme was carried out in decorations, dance orders, and spirit.

Our slowly starving treasury was replenished by food sales, which were held at John C. McInnes Co. in February and again in April.

In April we sponsored a Scholarship Dance, the purpose being to award a scholarship at Graduation.

Throughout the year our meetings have been highlighted by many well-known speakers, also by a mother-sister night, and a meeting honoring the alumni.

The year was brought to a gala close by our annual banquet at which time we elected officers for the coming year.

Shrewsbury started this season with an inexperienced team, and after being beaten by Hudson and Uxbridge the team hit its stride with a 38-0 win over Saint Mary's of Milford. The team improved as the season progressed and beat its arch rivals, Holden and Westboro in thrilling contests. Next season's football team should easily better the year's 5-5 record because only a few boys will be lost, enabling Shrewsbury to field an experienced, well-drilled squad. David Johnson and Rodney Mowry were elected co-captains of next year's team.

GIRLS FIELD HOCKEY

This year's hockey team, led by Jane Greenwood and Jean Cartier, can boast a fine record, winning eight games out of twelve. Two hard fought contests with our old rivals, Holden and Auburn, resulted in a 0-0 deadlock.

At the close of the season, Frances Zuromskis and Ann Seguin were chosen to lead the 1950 array. With the sparkling talent displayed by the team under the superior coaching of Miss Chase, success is inevitable.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girl's basketball team started its season with a tilt against the alumnae. The game was a heart-breaking one, the alumnae winning by one point in the last seconds of the final quarter. This contest seemed to put a jinx on the season because the luck seemed always to be with the opposing team. The games, although they were close ones, were usually wins for the opposition. The team does have one thing it can brag about and that is its double win over Holden, an annual rival. The second team had a much better record than the first and is looking forward to a fine season next year.

BASKETBALL

The Shrewsbury High Basketball team enjoyed an excellent season in 1950. They won eleven games and lost five. The team showed exceptional spirit and boasted great talent throughout the season. In the Blackstone Valley League the boys compiled a record of seven and three, but they lost out by a slim margin at the end of the season. The Colonials were entered in the Clark post season tournament. They were edged out in the last minute by Grafton, the tourney champs. Next year, with Jim Collomore and Marty Wilson to lead them, the team is looking for a very successful season.

Valuable material, in the form of this year's J. V.'s, will help to bring success to the team when the boys again take to the hardwood.

BASEBALL

Shrewsbury opens its baseball season on April 28 when the squad travels to Clinton for a twilight game. The weather has been too cold to give the boys very much outdoor practice, but Coach Bergstrom feels that his charges will be ready for a successful campaign.

Of the many veterans returning, only two of last year's regulars are seniors; they are pitchers Bob Tonelli and Ed Garrepy. Other veterans are George Delorto, Marty Wilson, and Bob Armstrong.

Front row, left to right: Ronald McVickar, Frank Viscardi, Earl Bates, Tom White, Bob White, Don Mitchell, George Delorto, Bob Tonelli.

CREW

Because the crew in the '49 season had an unblemished record, this year's crew had to measure up to the excellent record of the previous season. However, with Mr. Burns as coach any crew is sure to win.

A longer, tougher schedule was planned for this year including the first race, April 29, with Tabor Academy at Lake Quinsigamond.

Four replacements had to be made in the line-up which caused a slow start at first, but our men at the end of the season came through with flying colors.

The schedule for the races was as follows:

*Tabor Academy

Columbia University

*New England Schoolboy Championship

*Home races.

OTHER CLASSES

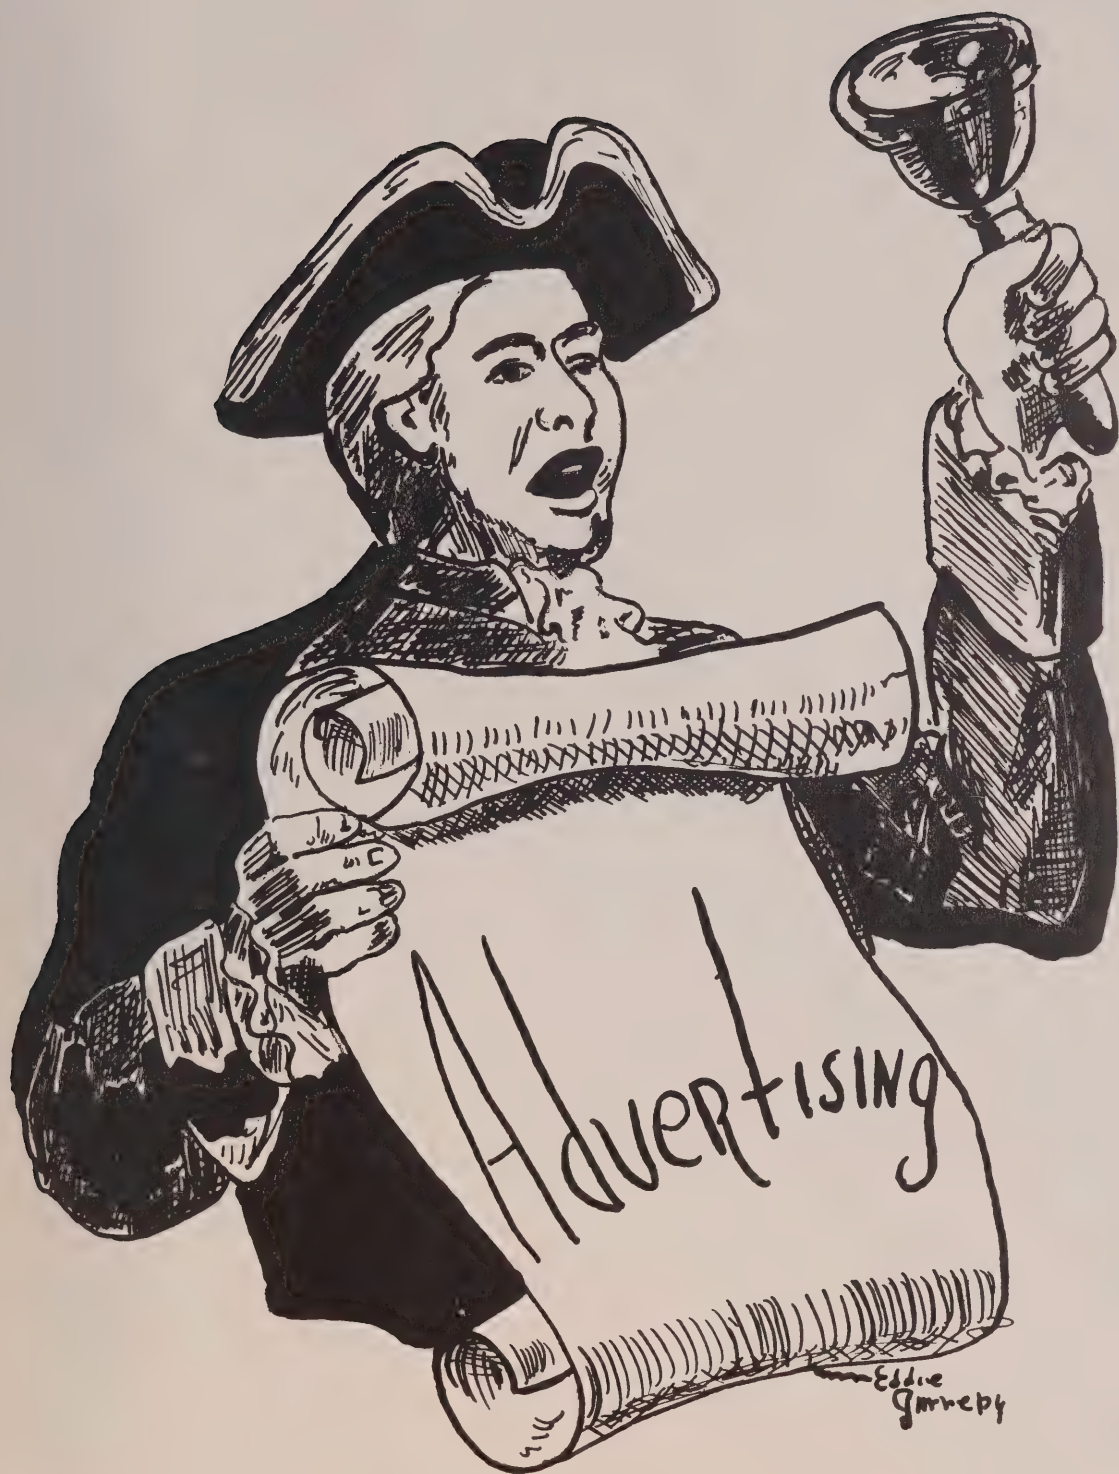

The Junior, Sophomore and Freshman Classes have all enjoyed a year filled with fun and new activities. Under the guidance of their class officers: Michael Rigiero, President; Carl Liljestrand, Vice-President; Marilyn Sencabaugh, Secretary, and Roberta Loomer, Treasurer, the Junior Class sponsored several successful dances including the "Harvest Hop" and "Cupid Dance". The Sophomore Class kept up the pace set by their upper classmates by holding their Sophomore Social which was headed by their officers, Joseph Concordia, President; Nancy Beer, Vice-President; Marilyn Pride, Secretary, and Janet Nordgren, Treasurer. The Freshman Class, as a result of semi-annual balloting, has retained two sets of officers. For the first half year the following won offices: Guido D'Alessandro, President; Frances McGrail, Vice-President; Carole Olson, Secretary, and Constance Safford, Treasurer. Officers for the second half were: Wilford Sanders, President; Gretchen Knecht, Vice-President; Marilyn Estabrook, Secretary, and Frances McGrail, Treasurer. Freshman activities for the year included an "Old Fashioned Dance" and a tea for the mothers.
